IN ADDITION to names and addresses, your City Directory contains much detailed information concerning the people of your community. In order to list this information certain symbols and designations have been developed which enable important statistics to be compressed into the smallest possible space. You will receive far greater benefits from your City Directory if you familiarize yourself with the symbols and what they stand for.

In checking credit applications, in conducting direct mail advertising programs, in planning sales campaigns, in building prospect lines, and in scores of other ways your City Directory will prove of invaluable assistance.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL INDEX

HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY, publishers of Southeastern Directories (publishers of the Fayetteville Directory since 1906), present to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1970 edition of the Fayetteville City Directory. (In all, the HILL DIRECTORY COMPANY and its affiliated companies publish more than 1,400 City, County, State and National Directories).

Confidence in the growth of Fayetteville's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Fayetteville to the world.

The enviable position occupied by HILL'S Directories in the estimation of the public, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Fayetteville Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the community.

Four Major Departments

The four major departments are arranged in the following order:--

I. THE BUYERS' GUIDE constitutes the first major department of the Directory, printed on yellow paper. In the first section of this department, grouped under appropriate headings, are included the advertisements and business cards of firms and individuals desiring to make a complete presentation of their products or services. Following this is the Classified Business Section, which embraces a list of the names and addresses of all business and professional concerns of the community, arranged in alphabetical order under appropriate headings--a catalog of all the activities of the community. The Buyers' Guide represents reference advertising at its best, and merits the attention of all buyers and sellers seeking sources of supply or markets for goods. In a busy and diversified community like Fayetteville, the necessity of having this kind of information up-to-date and always immediately available, is obvious. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller, and plays an important role in the daily activities of the commercial, industrial and professional world.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns is the second major department, printed on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Fayetteville, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation in the community.

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE is the third major department, printed on green paper. In this section the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of owner occupied homes, the listing of telephone numbers, and Zip Codes.

IV. THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY is the fourth major department, printed on blue paper.

Municipal Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site, and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Fayetteville.

The Fayetteville Out-of-Town City Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the Fayetteville City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the Fayetteville Area Chamber Of Commerce Inc., for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 800 Directory Libraries installed in the cities and towns throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico through the courtesy of your Publisher.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

The Famous Market House, with Fayetteville's City Hall in the background

Voit Gilmore, first Director of the United States Travel Service, speaking at Fayetteville Area Chamber Of Commerce Annual Dinner Meeting, Fayetteville, April 9, 1970.

* * * * *

"By 1775, when the Scottish Heroine, Flora McDonald came up the Cape Fear River with her family, Cumberland County already was 21 years old and had a Scottish history reaching back fifty years. Its citizens had just sent a petition to the General Assembly for a new court house, pointing out the following 'that the village called Cross Creek . . . has within a few years increased in a rapid manner, in-somuch that there are one hundred dwelling houses and merchant's stores therein and the trade of the back settlements . . . almost wholly centers there, occasioned originally by the convenience of the flour mills on Cross Creek, of which there are now three, and the best in the state.'

The new court house was approved. Cross Creek was rolling—

A Legislative Act of 1784 made it unlawful for new buildings to interfere with the 'beauty and regularity' of original streets and squares.

In 1785, slaves in Fayetteville who were freed were allowed to register with the town clerk, place a cloth badge with the word FREE on their left shoulder and then be at liberty to 'hire out.'

In 1788, wooden chimneys were outlawed in Fayetteville and in 1802, liquor-by-the-drink was approved, with the thoughtful provision of a public inspector to check the size of jiggers.

Meantime, in the late 1700's, Highland Scots were pushing west from Cumberland into Moore, up Little River, Big Rockfish and Drowning Creeks, in a great game of leap-frog with fertile lands as stakes, each newcomer going upstream above an older settler far enough to claim fifty good acres at a cost of a shilling or less an acre. These were poor, proud, determined highlanders, not the polished Scottish gentry of Edinburgh and Glasgow. Indeed, this was a different race of men, a race that had defied Caesar and forced his general, Hadrian, to erect a wall across the midlands to confine them to their bleak northern hills. These Cape Fear settlers had pictish and celtic blood, mixed with strains of vikings and moors--and the product was a hardy, defiant race never before defeated until the bloody Duke of Cumberland sent them scrambling for America after the Battle of Culloden.

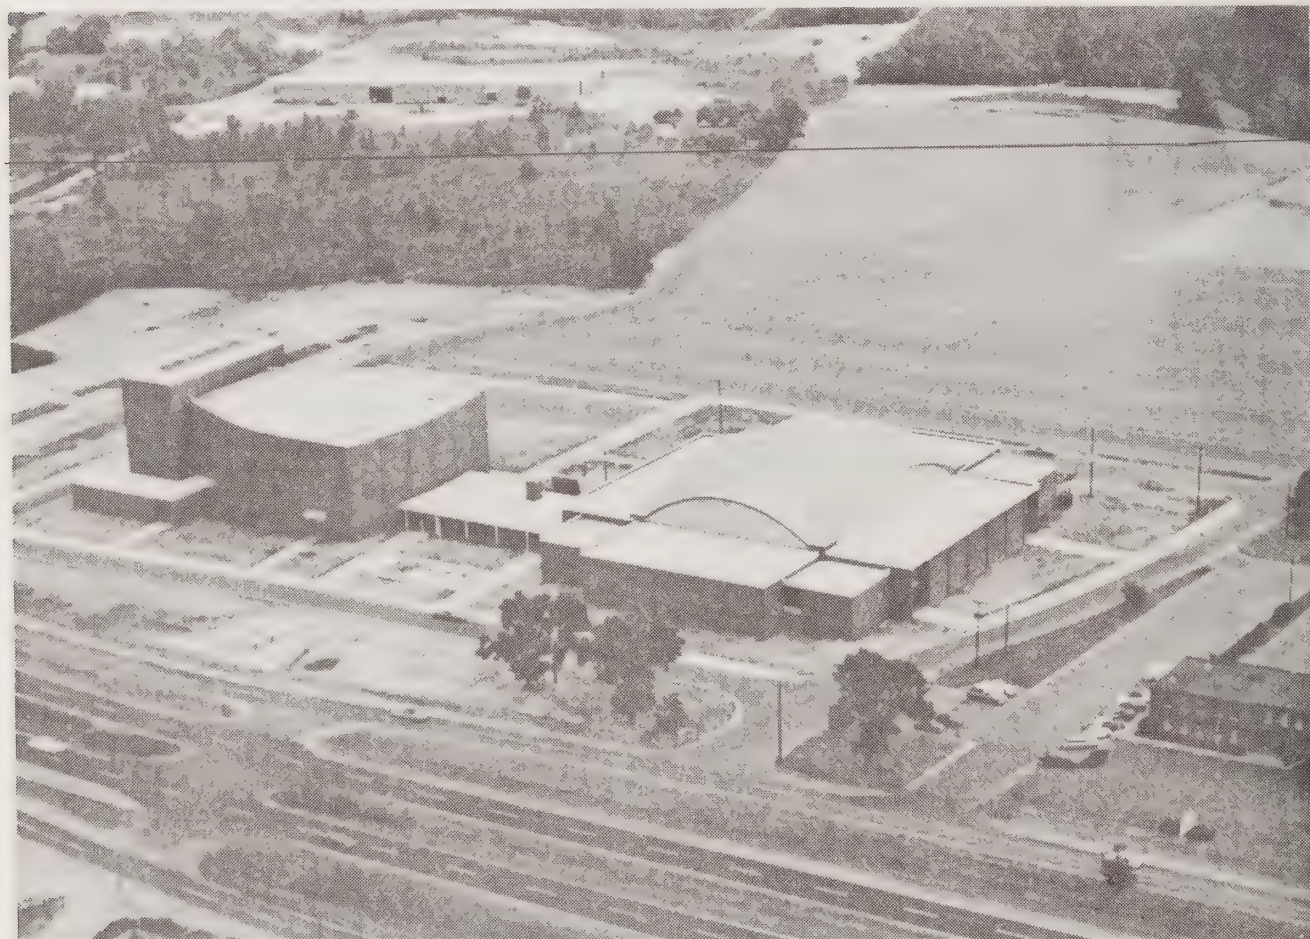

Many a person in this room tonight shares this highlander heritage. It has put its imprint on the remarkable progress of Cumberland County. In large measure it was Scottish tenacity which brought Fayetteville within one vote of becoming the Capitol of North Carolina back when Joel Lane wooed the Legislative Commission into putting the Capitol onto his 1000 acres in Wake County at a price of $2.75 an acre.

In 1825, great excitement was generated by the visit to Fayetteville of General La Fayette, hero of the Revolution. With typical Scottish candor the orator of that occasion, Judge Toomer, told the aging French leader, 'nature has lavished her choicest gifts on my native state. We have a salubrious climate, fertile soil, and numerous rivers, susceptible of the highest improvement, but we have neglected to improve our advantages. We have relied too much on the parent of every good. But the spirit of internal improvement is, at length, awakened. North Carolina may look forward with pride and pleasure to her destiny. We place our confidence in the liberality and exertions of succeeding legislatures. Colleges will be endowed. The arts and sciences will be patronized. Roads will be made. Rivers will be opened. Our resources will be annually developed, and Fayetteville, at some future day, may be worthy of the distinguished name it bears.'

General La Fayette responded in gracious style:

'At every step of my progress through the United States, I am called to enjoy the emotions arising from patriotic feelings and endearing recollections, from the sight of improvements I witness, and from the affectionate welcomes I have the happiness to receive. Those sentiments, sir, are particularly excited when, upon entering the interesting and prosperous town which has done me the honor to adopt my name, I can at once admire its actual progress and anticipate its future destinies, convinced as I am that the generous and enlightened people of North Carolina will continue all assistance to improve the natural advantages of Fayetteville and make it more and more useful to the State.'

And so this City had its beginnings. There were frustrations--such as the Cape Fear Navigation

AUDITORIUM AND EXHIBIT HALL

AIRPORT WITH JETS

Company's unrealized dream to extend river navigation upstream fifty miles by a system of locks and dams to where the Deep and Haw rivers converge in Chatham County.

There were triumphs—the establishment of the Veterans Administration Hospital in 1939-40, a classic example of accomplishment through community teamwork.

There were sad times—the great fire of May 29, 1831, when 600 private buildings were destroyed, along with every principal public building, school, church and hotel, a disaster to the village of 3500 people, comparatively more severe than the great fires of Chicago and San Francisco.

And there were glad times—I always enjoy Mr. John Oates's account of Cumberland's well-known fox hunters, Dr. J. W. McNeill and Mr. Ed Williamson. Oates recounts that, 'they would lay off of medicine and cotton milling any time that a good fox hunt was in prospect. One Saturday night after they had rounded up a fine pack of hounds, they set out for the chase. The hounds were picked for their synchronized voices. It was on toward midnight when the dogs struck the trail and opened up a musical concert that sets an old fox hunter wild. Both these hunters were Presbyterian elders and they respected the Sabbath Day Commandment. Mr. Ed took out his watch and saw that it was nearly midnight. He called the doctor and told him that they must stop, for the Sabbath Day was at hand. Just at that time Old Ben, a reliable fox hound, opened up with his full bass voice. This made the chorus complete. Dr. McNeill was enjoying the music to the fullest. He replied, 'Ed, it is almost Sunday, but you know that God hates a quitter. Let's go on and finish it up.' They did it. They followed the hounds over the Sandhills and through the swamp until the catching. They both were in their places in Sunday School that Sunday morning.

Today, the Fayetteville Area's physical inventory tells the story of your continuing business and industrial leadership: A handsome auditorium-arena-exhibit hall complex, together with the Downtowner Exposition Center which puts trade associations and sports promoters on notice that Fayetteville can handle major events.

... A handsome new airport facility to match your growing jet passenger service ...

... Enough banks--six--to keep every banker on his toes and room enough for debtors to shop for better interest rates ...

... Aggressive merchants and impressive suburban shopping centers which have combined to push your area retail sales up 154.3 per cent over 1960, to a current level of $369 Million ..."

A STATEMENT OF ADVERTISING PRINCIPLES

1. Good Advertising ~ aims to inform the consumer and help him to buy more intelligently.
2. Good Advertising ~ tells the truth, avoiding misstatement of facts as well as possible deception through implication or omission. It makes no claims which cannot be met in full and without further qualification. It uses only testimonials of competent witnesses.
3. Good Advertising ~ conforms to the generally accepted standards of good taste. It seeks public acceptance on the basis of the merits of the product or service advertised rather than by the disparagement of competing goods. It tries to avoid practices that are offensive or annoying.
4. Good Advertising ~ recognizes both its economic responsibility to help reduce distribution costs and its social responsibility in serving the public interest.

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

CAUTION

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

Out of Sight - Out of Mind

★ Out of Business ★

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

CAUTION

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

PLEASE! Do Not Lend Your CITY DIRECTORY

IT COSTS YOU MONEY—Every Time it Is Loaned

The practice of lending your City Directory, in a great measure, is responsible for the increasing cost of Directory Service.

The reason is:—

There is a definite cost involved in the making of the DIRECTORY of Your City.

THIS COST MUST BE ABSORBED BY THE SUBSCRIBERS—BE THEY ONE—OR BE THEY 1000.

If there were but ONE SUBSCRIBER to the CITY DIRECTORY—THE ONE SUBSCRIBER would of necessity have to absorb THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 100 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/100 PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 1000 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/1000 PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

From which it is obvious that the GREATER the number of subscribers—the LESSER the cost to each.

And

It is also obvious that the LESSER the number of subscribers—the GREATER the cost to each.

Every time you loan your City Directory the LESS NECESSITY THERE IS FOR THE BORROWER TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SERVICE.

MORE BORROWERS result in FEWER SUBSCRIBERS which means INCREASED COST.

CAUTION

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

CAUTION

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.
